

Agreement for Reciprocal Membership Privileges between the Institute of Physics Singapore and the Physical Society of Hong Kong

The Institute of Physics Singapore (IPS) and the Physical Society of Hong Kong (PSHK) agree to enhance interactions among members and extend reciprocal membership privileges as defined below.

1. Members of IPS (PSHK) may submit papers to the meetings of PSHK (IPS) with the same local member privileges and limitations.
2. Members of IPS (PSHK) may register at the meetings of PSHK (IPS) with the same local member rates.
3. Both Societies agree to enhance information exchange on meetings, seminars, and workshops organized by either society.
4. Both Societies agree to encourage bilateral visiting of officers in order to directly exchange their views and strengthen their relationship.

This agreement shall remain in effect for a minimum of two years following the date below, after which time the terms of the agreement may be reviewed, renegotiated, renewed, or terminated if either IPS or PSHK so desires.
